August begins with a full moon in Aquarius on August 3, which asks us to rely on the qualities of Aquarius, embracing our inner rebel and challenging the status quo. This full moon pushes us to open our minds and understand the truth, no matter how strange it may be. Uranus, the modern ruler of Aquarius, is currently in Taurus, activating this luminary to walk on the wild side. During this full moon, expect the unexpected and take strange events headed your way. You are the leader of your pack, which means that you keep a big influence on your team. Now, you can use your popularity for a good cause and gather your friends to work together to raise funds for your local mutual aid group/organize a protest or rally/form a nonprofit/call your representatives. With a long list of contacts, your humanitarian work will be super successful. Taurus your family and/or friends are putting pressure on you to fit in. But what is normal, anyway? Right now, you find that you need to make your own rules, especially when it comes to love. You can decide what works for you in all your ways. Gemini It's time for you to lean into your curiosity. So subscribe to an online class, watch a documentary, or pick up a book that has been gathering dust in your TBR pile. Whatever it is, make sure you use this luminary to expand your mind and educate yourself. Cancer your team is evolving and changing, not because you are separate from your besties, but because you are transforming the way you hang out. Think of changing your happy hour to a more structured book club or heading out for a safe and socially distant picnic. Leo Stop dreaming about your happy-all-after during business meetings. We get that you have sous-go eyes for your S.O., but it distracts you from your professional commitments and creating conflict at work. Think of love during working hours. Virgo you really want to break through from the restrictions that keep you back. Try meditating. This will help you avoid daily stress, find peace of mind and relax. Best of all, you will inspire yourself to grow inside. Libra Moment has finally come for you to set boundaries in your intimate relationships. Instead of texting your boo 24/7 and wanting an immediate response, give them a moment to get back to you. Don't demand their attention and affection all the time and you can avoid riding an emotional roller coaster. Scorpio you know that your home can use a little sprucing up, but you are not able to afford all the changes that want to do. Stay on the budget, starting with minor adjustments and changes. Craigslist, here you are. It is more difficult than ever for Sagittarius to focus on day-to-day tasks and work projects. Make a to-do list to stay on track as you await moments of inspiration. When come, direct your creativity into these boring projects, and they suddenly get more interesting. CapricornS are usually super close to your group of friends, but there's been a bit of distance lately. Instead of running away from drama, solve your issues in the first direction. You can solve oddities and get back to normal life if you speak your mind. Aquarius you are an innovator by nature and this full moon in a sign will push you to accept your strange ideas. In fact, you'll find others copying you! Remember that imitation is a form of flattery- they just want to be unique like you. PiscesPSA: You should give yourself a moment to cool down alone during this full moon. Be on one with your thoughts, taking the time to relax, whether it's binge watching Netflix or meditating. Whatever you choose to do, it is important to connect with yourself and your thoughts. That's why Bustle recruited Mecca Woods, a New York astrologer MyLifeCreated.com to tell us all about how astrology affects our lives every day. Today's theme: your daily horoscope for May 10, 2019.It's a high energy day with the Moon entering a cheerful and passionate Lion at the beginning of the day, putting us in the mood to strut our stuff and have some fun. Since Leo is a sign that also values creativity and romance, we may be willing to follow our hearts when it comes to the people and things that inspire us. However, with Leo Moon squared off with unconventional Uranus and analytical Mercury in grounded Taurus this afternoon, we might feel a little conflicted between having fun and taking a more practical approach. With Leo Luna in the team with the wounded Chiron in Aries, the best way to handle these Leo-Taurus Mashup planets is by doing something that feels good but with long-term advantages in mind. Read below to see what the stars mean for your sign today, and make sure to check your May 2019 horoscope. Aries (March 21 - April 19) You may want to spend a lot of money today, but you may have to take a more practical approach to your budget and give up instant gratification. Your money may be better spent on something with a long-term reward. Overall, it's time for new financial habits. Taurus (April 20 - May 20) You usually rock for everyone else, but you can be the one who needs support today. On the other hand, if you want to move forward, you have to be prepared past behind and write a new narrative for yourself. You don't have to keep subscribing to the same old story. Gemini (May 21 - June 20) You may feel a little anxious anxious stressed today, although talking to a brother or sister or friend can be helpful in relieving the stress you feel. On a similar note, take time out to nourish your spiritual and emotional well-being. Remember the information/media you absorb. Cancer (June 21 - July 22) It may seem like a plan that you have without getting together the way you want, perhaps because of the cash or the number of hands you need, but you may just need to rework the plan. Meanwhile, if you feel like the odd duck out today, remember that you weren't born to fit in. Leo (July 23 - August 22) While you've been making great career moves lately, be careful about spending too much of your time comparing yourself to others and their success. You are exactly where you need to be. Celebrate how far you've come. Step and continue to be the leader you are. You determine your success. Virgo (August 23 - September 22) Today you can do a lot, but your energy may not be as high as you would like now. Instead, look at the ways that you can nourish yourself from within as it can do a lot to lift your spirits. Work to let go of self-limiting beliefs or ways of thinking. Libra (September 23 - October 22) You may need to draw some boundaries with a friend today, offline or offline, as someone can play diva. If someone is currently leaking your time and energy, you don't owe them your attention. Let others handle their own stuff for a change and watch what happens. Scorpio (October 23-November 21) You can't be on the same page as your boss or someone you work closely with, which can damage your confidence a little bit. If this is a situation that has happened too many times, perhaps it's time to go where you are really valued. The network can bring positive results. Sagittarius (November 22-December 21) You can have areas on a plate today, which is not necessarily a bad thing. While you may need to be mindful of overexertion yourself or get discouraged too easily. Being more conscientious as you manage your time and energy can help. Work smarter, not harder. Capricorn (December 22 - January 19) Money related to the case can put in the way of your fun today, but the question is only temporary. Meanwhile, in matters of the heart, it may be time to have something (or someone to go with), especially if they can't offer you the emotional depth that you crave. You can choose in a different way in love. Aquarius (January 20 - February 18) You and your partner or someone in your family today may have trouble being on the same page. Although it may be a good time to sell things that you may have avoided. Too, if things have become stagnant between you and your partner, it's time to shake Fish (February 19 - March 20) You can feel that today you work in circles, but you can stay ahead of the event, setting priorities and focusing only on what you can control. On the other hand, it can be a good day for a reorganization project or for brainstorming new ideas. You've got it! This is!
